

NEWSPAPER

NOVEMBER - DECEMBER 2022

Funded by
the European Union

Opening Digital Worlds Doors
to #NEXT Digital Generations
2022-1-CZ01-KA220-SCH-000084941

TRIP TO PRAGUE 1/3

In November our class set off on a trip to Prague, where we were supposed to spend two lovely days.

Everything seemed to be going well until we were informed that a vandal had stolen some railway wires, and we had no idea how long the delay would be. We had a tour scheduled at the National Bank in Prague, which we won as champions in the game FINGER PLAY. The tour was planned for 10 a.m., but a 194-minute delay complicated everything. Most of us took advantage of the unexpected downtime to catch up on some sleep.

We arrived in Prague around 12:30 p.m., and luckily, the bank staff was very accommodating, allowing us to have at least a brief tour despite the significant delay. During the visit, we saw the second-largest coin in the world, vault doors, learned how to spot a counterfeit banknote, and were guided through the "For the Currency" program. We thoroughly enjoyed the entire tour, gaining plenty of knowledge and winning some great prizes.

DECLARATION

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission. This newspaper reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

NEWSPAPER

NOVEMBER - DECEMBER 2022

Funded by
the European Union

Opening Digital Worlds Doors
to #NEXT Digital Generations
2022-1-CZ01-KA220-SCH-000084941

TRIP TO PRAGUE 2/3

After the tour, we headed to Wenceslas Square, where we had an hour of free time to grab a proper meal. Once we had eaten, we all gathered at the statue of St. Wenceslas and continued towards our accommodation. On the way, our classmate Sabča and Mr. Prokeš parted ways with us, as they headed home.

NOW THE REAL FUN BEGINS!

We arrived at the accommodation, looking forward to enjoying a fun evening in Prague. However, the complications started as soon as we arrived. The receptionist was very unpleasant and tried to overcharge us.

Thankfully, our homeroom teacher, Mrs. Banetskaya, and Mr. Málek sorted everything out, and despite the disagreements with the staff, we were eventually allowed to check in. Once in our rooms, we all got ready for our evening adventure in Prague. At 10:00 p.m., we all met back at the hostel and went to sleep.

GOOD NIGHT!

DECLARATION

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission. This newspaper reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

TRIP TO PRAGUE 3/3

Wake-up call was at 8 a.m., and we were headed to the Police Museum. On the way, we stopped for breakfast at Billa, where the line was so long it felt like they were giving something away for free. At the museum, we were greeted by a friendly staff. We put our things away and were eager to see what awaited us. Our guide prepared worksheets for us to fill in based on the information we would learn from the museum exhibits. We all really enjoyed it, and the exhibition was fascinating. We got to see a variety of uniforms, weapons, and even original weapons used in actual crimes, such as the knife used by Ladislav Hojer to commit his murders.

The tour ended around noon. We then headed to Wenceslas Square, where we had another break for lunch and some shopping. Our meeting point was once again by the statue, and from there, we made our way to the Main Train Station. The train ride went by fairly quickly, and we all parted ways at the Otrokovice train station. Despite the various complications, we really enjoyed the trip, and the memories will stay with us for a long time.

We would like to thank Mr. Prokeš, Mrs. Banetskaya, and Mr. Málek for the wonderful time we had in Prague.

DECLARATION

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission. This newspaper reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.